

'Come and see' was how Jesus invited Andrew and John, His first two followers, to join Him on a journey of discovery. This same invitation was extended, implicitly or explicitly, to many other people during the next two or three years. It was met with different responses. Some realised that Jesus was the Messiah, God's chosen One, the person they had been seeking. Others were taken by surprise, recognising that He was the answer to situations in which they were trapped. But others had a vested interest in denying Jesus' identity and turned against Him in fear and anger. As we follow the story of John's Gospel over several months, what will our response be to Jesus' invitation to 'come and see'?

This series continues from Sunday 8th January at 10:00am

Big, complex, old ... just some of the words people use to describe the Bible. Sound familiar? That's where The Bible Course comes in as we kick off our Sunday morning café and conversation sessions on Sunday 15th January. Across a series of eight Sundays, with video presentation, group discussion and personal reflection this is a great place to guestion and discuss together as we take a birdseye view of the world's bestselling book, and see its relevance to life today. These sessions are accessible for people, trying out church, new to Christianity, and ideal as a follow-on from Alpha.

We'll be serving drinks from 9:45am and the session starts at 10:00am.

The Lounge@Belmont starts on Sunday 15th January at 10:00am

The BIG Church Day is taking place on Saturday 11th March. A festival day for the whole church. We'll have teaching, sung worship, guizzes and BIG CHURCH DAY challenges, city-wide adventures, food and fellowship. Our quest speaker for the day is Derek Burnside, and our sung worship will be led by singer/songwriter Andy Flannagan. More details to follow but put the date in your diary ready for a great day together.

John Stott in his book 'Issues facing Christians Today' reminds his readers that every generation of Christians face the same unique challenge - 'to live in the world under the Word." The society that surrounds us constantly presents new challenges for us as Christians. How are we to live wisely and well when faced with worldviews that appear to run contrary to the teachings of Scripture? In this series we will be exploring some of the most pressing contemporary political, social and moral challenges facing us today. We will be looking our attitudes to money and possessions, contentment, relativism, morality and justice.

This series starts on Sunday 8th January at 5:00pm

On Sunday 22nd January at 6:00pm there is an invitation to attend St Matt's Church for a city-wide Exeter Prays event. A great opportunity to meet and pray alongside Christians from churches across the city. An informative, inspiring and encouraging evening of prayer and worship.

In theory we all know we can be confident in our faith. When we are gathered together with other Christians we often feel full of confidence. But when daily life hits, it can all drain away. How can we, with God's help, change that? During this season of Lent we will explore what the Bible has to say about growing deep faithconfidence that lasts from Sunday into the rest of our week. A series designed to equip us to be better prepared to represent Christ on our Frontlines every day. In addition to the Sunday teaching, this series will be accompanied by a Lenten reading plan and prayer guide.

This series starts on Sunday 26th February at 5:00pm
