

Following the celebration of Easter, we will explore the meaning of the resurrection more fully through 1 Corinthians 15, Paul's 'Resurrection Chapter'. It is a chapter that speaks about our commission to be witnesses and then unpacks that witness into the meaning of the resurrection- our life- and the form of the resurrection- our hope. Let's encourage each other to be 'every day Easter' people.

One of the great themes of the biblical narrative is 'Exile and Homecoming'. This series will explore it in its original context and also as it is applied as an idea to our salvation and our life as 'Church' today. We will look at the journey to exile, learn about living and learning in exile, about hope in exile focusing on Jesus, on mission as a new kind of exile on our hope for a glorious and final homecoming where we will know God's presence intimately and completely.

Jesus' words of call were simple, 'Follow me!' In the evenings we will look at nine discipleship practices suggested by John Mark Comer's book, 'Practicing the Way'. The services will include worship, prayer, anecdote, a piece of teaching, discussion and the chance to consider how to live as a disciple of Christ. Come to listen, to worship, to pray, to contribute as we learn together.

In Conversation With... 'FieldLily' - 29th June, 7pm

We're thrilled to welcome local band Fieldlily. Sisters Beth and Emilie, formerly of the acclaimed folk-rock group

Wildwood Kin, have toured nationally and internationally - gracing stages at Radio 2 Live in Hyde Park, Glastonbury, and Big Church Festival. Now performing as Fieldlily, their stunning music continues to be shaped by their Christian faith. They'll be performing some of their latest songs, sitting down with our Sung Worship Coordinator, Laura, to chat about how their faith has influenced their music journey-and how music can be a powerful way to share the hope of the gospel. Listen to their latest single, "Sunrise" – written by Wildwood Kin & Fieldlily – click here.
