James - Living faith

Morning services will be café style. Each Sunday will be following the New Testament book of James. We will consider what an active living faith is and how we live that out.

It's life Jim, but not as we know it.

Evening services will complement the morning services, following the New Testament book of James. Each week will help us to consider an alternative life-style, a different life that those in Christ are called to live in the world.
